in full to date, as for the 1794th it is the very one you sent. for I have from 2 to 3 persons to look over all coins received from you, or anyone else, & we all thought to think, you marked a poor <sup>1/2</sup> ct. for a good one & charged 33¢. Confound it, don't you know what you sent, but if you say you sent any other, then this, you are greatly mistaken & that is to small a trick to do & to cheap. why you must be off, or your clerks, I am sorry to say so, but it is provoking to receive any such a flap. you asked me to return your 1/2 ct. this is the 2nd time I sent it. so be content, you got yours & can't get any other. Mr Chapman I am above Stealing or exchanging coins, I have handled coins from 1860 to date & am no boy & when you can make me believe I made a mistake on that  $\frac{1}{2}$  ct. I say it is false Enclose find the 1794  $\frac{1}{2}$  ct & keep it - & don't dare to send it here again for if you do you will not gain, I assure you. (if you do send it for about 10¢) -

Miss Chapman
Gentleman

Yours & hand & in looking over your letter where it says, that a customer of yours had compared coins & to see if he wanted any, - had taken yours & replaced it with his, involuntarily, placing the best in his drawer (then you say) that you never saw that  $\frac{1}{2}$  ct until it came back from me, & that a mistake had been made, if that is the case that Gentleman must be in R. if you can describe it in anyway I will make a search for it, & if found with any one of them, I will make him trouble, but when I took the  $\frac{1}{2}$  ct from your envelope 1st time 2 Gentlemen were here, & one said, that is too poor for the money & said you must have made the mistake, I never showed it to any one after that. I remember well & the remark that was made certainly I can't see how a mistake like that could occur for I took take out the coins from the envelope & show them & I put them back &

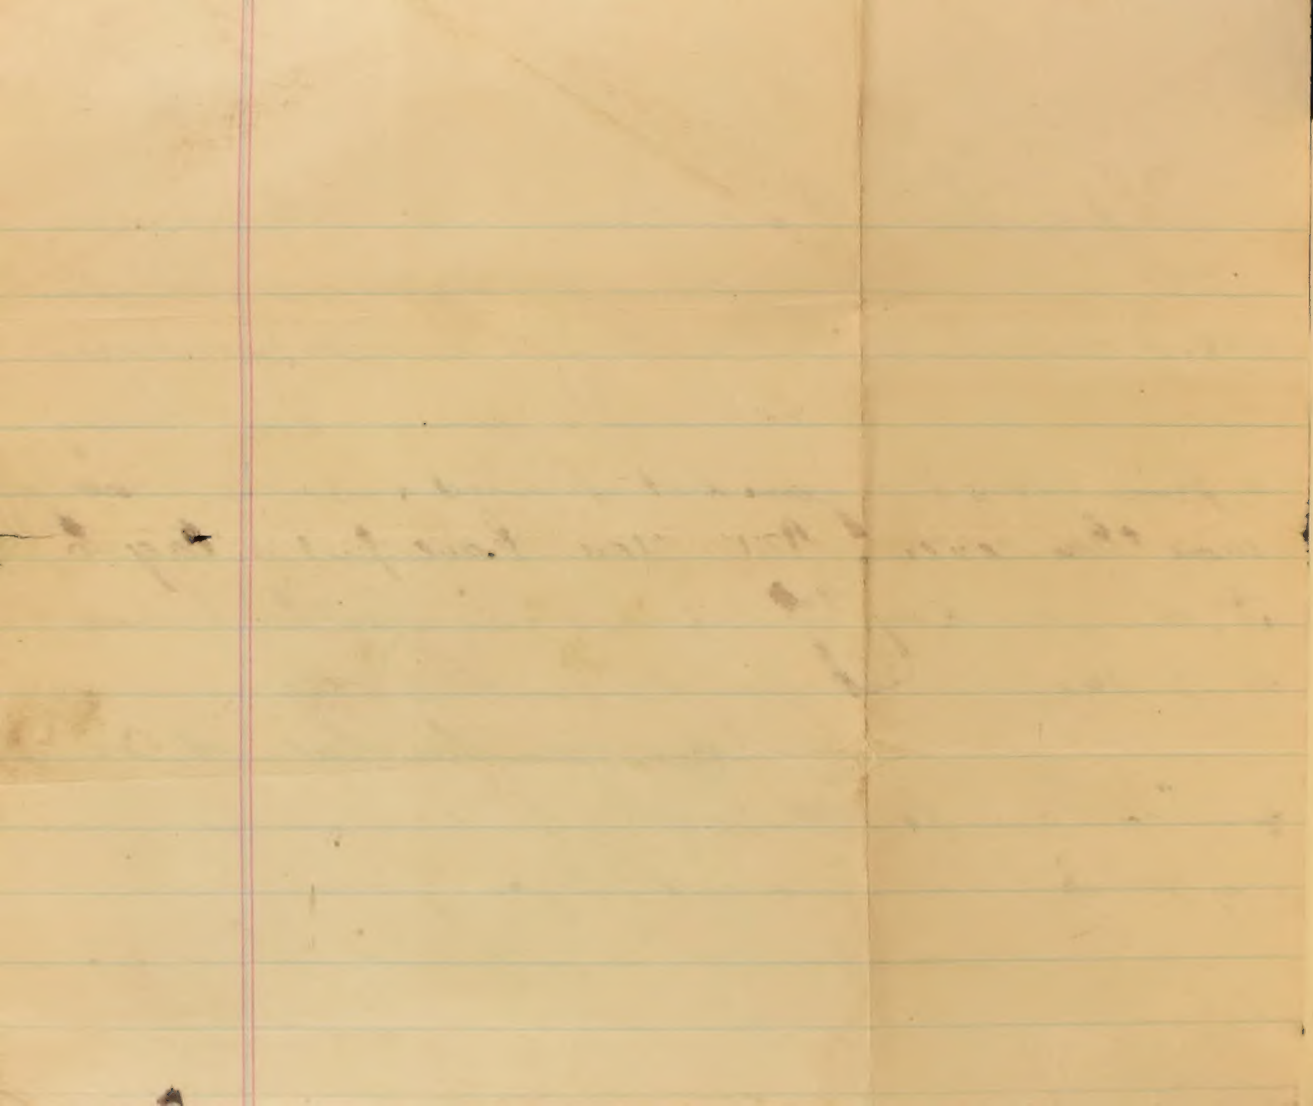

I also keep them separate from other coins & don't have to compare them with other coins, or with any one else's coins, for when I see a coin I can tell its gain & out of 10. By you have sent me one cent & different times & @ different prices each time & brought it in the last lot ~~of~~ you sent, that  $\frac{1}{2}$  it must be changed by some one else & returned it to you & you sent it on to me & when I returned it you saw it was changed, for it was not changed here (in my place) and am <sup>quite</sup> positive.

A few words more that I was hasty in my remarks, which was unbefitting a gentleman. I was provoked & out of patience & wrote hasty, without considering the matter. if I had thought while writing, as I did afterwards I would not have sent you such ~~an~~ a letter, being very conscientious & of a nervous temperament I could not help it at the time. I would have rather paid you double the amt of  $\frac{1}{2}$  of them than it occur, but am so sure that I did not do or change it - & it was not done here at 32 Jones St. You say you stood reference for me not long ago & said a good word for me as to my character.
Thank you very much, for the same, & think it was not more than right - for I always paid you evry cent of all some for coins in the U.S at present is 20 Cents. X

Mr Chapman I have dealt honestly & fairly with you & you could not say otherwise, & I did expect to deal with you longer, & to move them double by sales with you, I am having a price list & Bargain list printed & am advertising more than ever, Now you have put a tag to it, as you say (tag) & decline further business with me, (Chapman,) What reason

Do not you to send me <sup>so</sup> another lot of Coins & when you feel disposed to trust me longer you may let me know, & will tell you by words

Yours at hand the reason I took 10 for all round, for you stated in letter previous to that one, this were minor proofs<sup>4th</sup> & you allowed the same, as regards to 1824  $\frac{1}{4}$  dol it has a large hole & back of head in fair condition & your figures are plain 25.<sup>00</sup> & you added the same to in lot. enclose list of coins sent me & you can see for your self. your Sevens are all marked by plain & I can tell the difference between the 2, I don't care for 1824 with hole, but will keep it & you will find

Dear Sirs.

I cannot get only $1.50 for Lot 47. ~~$1.55~~ 125 Stone cards. May are worthless Campaign Budge with tin type picture feature. Cannot be seen or some & cannot sell. I was offered $1.50 for lot or I must return them.

I must get a lot more of Rubbish so I can let my mine go cheap I have now 2300 or more & cannot get 2.<sup>00</sup> each, by putting in that stuff. I can dispose of them all by selling a trifle less than $2.00 per 100.
Let me know, & I will pay postage

Dear Sir

I am ref. will sell all I can & keep some, I did want some old dollar, also  $\frac{1}{2}$  dollar dimes &  $\frac{1}{2}$  dimes & in fact - US Silver dollar from 1795, to 1803, <sup>including</sup> 2 d, from 1795 1801, 1802, 3, 5, 6, 7 & if you can send some, would be much obliged in US proof Set of 1892, you said the price would be \$65 per Set, & you billed them over that but it is all right - let me hear from you I will pay postage if you send. Send some

Dear Sir

Your post let at hand when you send look at my last letter that will tell you about what I want but send 1795 dollar in about good. Condition also 1803 1/2 dol. + 185 dime from fair to good & send a cheap lat. also Rutbist lat I would not send the 1893 Proff. Setts but you said the price 2.05 per Sett & when you sent them charged 2.95 - So lost the sale. you may send them or one Set at price mentioned in your letter to me. don't forget to send dollar 1/2 1/4 dime from fair to good I think I can dispose of them, but don't wait for sale to send 1795 dollar + 1803 1/2 dol + 185 dime

I need them for an order I have some fine ones but the parties do not want to pay price

Dear Sir

I have had no success with last lot - but out quite a little. Most every one of the customers were putting in letters from some that they will be ready for coins in a few weeks. I know about what they want. I will keep coins, which I think they will buy. Other have written ~~to~~ that were home & said when I sent them 13<sup>00</sup> worth of coins said they were to dear & only worth from 4 to 5<sup>00</sup> for lot - all men from last lot, & the medals they said were sold at auction from 3<sup>00</sup> to 5. I only sold about 3<sup>00</sup> worth so far. The Express Co. has lost a package.

of your Coins & some of mine which I sent to Canada. & it seems <sup>they</sup> was lost here in R. & it is about 6 weeks ago, the Co said after a thorough search, they suppose they would have to pay me, do you think it best to have me pick out from $25. to $35.00 worth of coins & send you balance for you may want to dispose of them to others, in about 1 month or so I can get rid of the above amount. Am sorry I did not do better but am most sure I can sell from 25 to 35.00 of them, & I don't want to hold on, only what I can dispose of, for I have quite a lot of coins
